On behalf of the City of Brampton, it is with great pleasure and enthusiasm that I extend a warm welcome to the esteemed members of the International Federation of Knitting Technologists as you convene in North America for the first time.

Your decision to bring this distinguished gathering to our city is a testament to the global significance of knitting technology and its impact on various industries. We are honoured to host a community that is at the forefront of innovation and excellence in this field.

As you commence your conference, we trust that the sharing of ideas and the establishment of meaningful connections will be at the forefront. Our city has a rich tradition of embracing diverse perspectives and fostering collaboration, and we believe that your presence here will contribute to the continued growth and evolution of knitting technology.

The City of Brampton extends its best wishes for a successful and fruitful conference. May this gathering be a catalyst for discoveries, meaningful partnerships, and advancements in the field of knitting technology.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Hitesh Sharma, the esteemed President of the Congress, for consistently embodying the qualities of a true champion and leader. His unwavering commitment has not only inspired but also paved the way for aspiring young entrepreneurs.

Sincerely,

Harkirat Singh Msc, MBA
